The Annual Partnership Report catalogs partnerships that Wyoming community colleges established and maintained for each fiscal year. This partnership report fulfills statutory reporting requirement W.S. 21-18-202(e)(iv) which mandates the development of annual reports to the legislature on the outcomes of partnerships between colleges and the University of Wyoming and other entities. Each community college partner maintains numerous partnerships for the development and provision of academic, occupational-technical, workforce development, and enrichment educational programs. These partnerships are essential for colleges to meet higher educational needs of Wyoming’s citizens and communities.

The seven public Wyoming community colleges provided for ten of their major partnerships during academic year 2014. These partnerships were divided into three partnering categories as follows:

Educational
- P-12 Education
- University of Wyoming
- Other Higher Education

Community Participation
- Community Organizations
- Cultural
- Human Services
- Non-Profit Organizations
- Professional Organizations

Regional Development
- Business and Industry
- Economic Development
- Workforce Training
- Government – Local, State, Federal
Table 1 represents the total number of partnerships in each of the three partnering categories for each public Wyoming community college and the total for all seven public Wyoming Community Colleges.

Nature of collaborative activities/efforts and outcomes
Casper College partnerships that support Career Programs are too numerous to describe in this concise format; just the list itself is quite long. For instance, some partnerships provide necessary electrical training classes to students with the content, methodology, contact hours and subjects required by the State of Wyoming to receive a journeyman electrician license using established Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee policies. Other partnerships are with local auto dealerships for training for services technicians.

Service Learning Program

Year the partnership started: 2006
Partnering Category: Community Participation

Nature of collaborative activities/efforts and outcomes
The college has developed several partnerships to provide students with opportunities to use knowledge and skills gained in the classroom in real-world settings. In addition to this practical application, service learning promotes community service by students. To form the Service Learning Advisory Board, the college has also partnered with four agencies: Boys and Girls Club, Needs, Inc., Youth Alternatives, and United Way of Laramie County. Representatives of these agencies provide input as the college’s commitment to service learning develops.

Nature of collaborative activities/efforts and outcomes

NWCCD, the City of Sheridan and the WYO Theater, Inc. (a non-profit) embarked on a joint project in 2010 to expand the single stage theater to multiple stages and expand opportunities in theater. NWCCD committed to locate its theater program at the expanded WYO Theater, the City as owner of the WYO Theater building agreed to accept ownership of a second building (Perkins building), and the WYO Theater agreed to give NWCCD preferential tenant status and highest priority for the additional stage, a black box theater in the Perkins Building. NWCCD coordinated grant writing efforts with support from the City and WYO. The WYO non-profit and NWCCD’s foundation conducted a joint fundraising campaign and the City of Sheridan managed the construction funding and construction process. The second facility came on line in early summer 2014. The college’s theater program has continued to increase the number of performances. This partnership has also assisted in the acquisition of a third building (Hallmark building). This space houses office areas for the WYO staff and the Center for Vital Community. Plans are to renovate the second and third floors for usable practice space for theatre and dance.

Nature of collaborative activities/efforts and outcomes

NWCCD, Western Wyoming Community College and Central Wyoming College were awarded a Round 1 grant from the U.S. Department of Labor in 2011. The colleges collaborated in program development that delivered training specifically designed for supervisors and entrepreneurs. The Wyoming Workforce Research and Planning office assisted in tracking of participants into employment. This allowed for analysis of program outcomes for completion and employment. An extension was approved and the round 1 grant will conclude in 2015. With the support of local industries, NWCCD was awarded a Round 3 grant and has used its funds to support CTE faculty in curriculum development and course enhancements, along with the purchase of equipment for various CTE programs and Workforce Development. This grant also provided funding for an advisor position devoted to support of CTE students.

Nature of collaborative activities/efforts and outcomes
NWCCD, the City of Sheridan and Sheridan County School District #2 formed a joint powers board to collaboratively address educational and infrastructure issues related to economic development. Using staff resources from the college and the City, the joint powers board has used state grant funds to build an early education center which SEEDA leases to an early education provider, build an industrial park designed for business recruitment and expansion of high-tech and manufacturing companies, accepted ownership of the infrastructure and empty lots in an existing commercial park and upgraded the infrastructure so the lots can be used for business expansion. NWCCD and the City of Sheridan continued the joint powers board working with the school district; however, SCSD#2 has elected to not be a formal member of the board. SEEDA has commissioned two planning projects. The first was to identify educational assets within the county, update the targeted industries and recommend steps to align K-12 and college educational programs to targeted industries’ occupational needs. The second project is to initiate a Creative Economy Council for Sheridan and Johnson Counties and complete three to five plans for projects that will increase the creative economy sector.
