Current College Services Closures and working/teaching remotely May 18, 2020

College	Campus status	Working/ teaching remotely
Casper College	Courses for the spring semester resumed Tuesday, March 31, and moved to distance learning modes for the remainder of the academic year. Except for on-campus housing and dining, all other campus facilities are closed to the public and the college moved to reduced hours of operation.	Casper College is operating with most staff working remotely. Events have been canceled and services are limited. The college is shifting to remote or online delivery modes for spring semester.
Central Wyoming College	All students who are attending courses virtually will continue to do so through the completion of the spring semester. In consultation with the Fremont County Public Health Officer, CWC has withdrawn the exception request for a limited number of students to receive instruction on campus. No students will attend class on CWC campuses. All college campuses will remain closed to public events.	CWC employees will remain working remotely, in accordance with the Governor's order until at least April 30, 2020, operating CWC's virtual campus functions. The few essential campus services that require employees to come to campus will follow all COVID19 health recommendations and will adhere to protocols listed in the employee Internal Operations Form.
Eastern Wyoming College	EWC Torrington campus received approval to reopen May 18. The campus will be open 7:30 am – 4 pm, Monday – Thursday and 7:30 am – 12:00 pm Friday. The reopening of other academic areas and services such as the Library, Community Education, and the Testing Center will occur on a limited basis also beginning May 18. Student Services administrative offices including Financial Aid, Enrollment Services, Admissions, Registrar, and the Student Success Center will also reopen. The campus reopening also includes the following offices: President's office, Institutional Development, Business Office, Information Center, Human Resources, and College Relations.	Employees will work 50% of their time on campus and 50% from home. There will be safety screening involving temperature checks, a requirement of masks or face coverings, and 6-foot social distancing. Cosmetology, Barbering, Gunsmithing, Adult Education and certain Welding students will be permitted on EWC campuses to complete clinical and laboratory hours and testing requirements necessary for their program completion.
Laramie County CC	LCCC has suspended the physical operations at all their locations. The will be offering virtual services.	All physical activities on campus are cancelled; all employees were directed to work from home. Classes resume online/virtually April 1 through May 15
Northwest College	NWC campus closure has been extended through May 31 and summer semester will be conducted online. All physical campus operations ceased on March 16.	NWC employees are working from home. Employees may only be on campus for limited work-related purposes only and not without prior approval from their supervisory Vice President or the President.

NWCCD (Gillette & Sheridan)	Any face-to-face portion of classes requiring students to travel to campus will remain on hold until restrictions have been lifted. Campuses will remain closed, except for limited personnel, until further notice.	Spring 2020 classes will move to online and other alternative teaching methods starting Monday, April 6, 2020.
Western Wyoming CC	Western closed its buildings (with very limited exceptions in the residence halls) through the end of the spring semester.	All employees were directed to work from home, unless notified specifically by a supervisor. Since they still need basic functions and support for those students still residing on campus, some employees are required to work on campus.
University of Wyoming	Campus visits and events are currently suspended until further notice. All athletic activities, including competitions, team and individual practices, and meetings and other organized gatherings are suspended until further notice.	All undergraduate and graduate courses will be delivered online for the remainder of the spring 2020 semester. Faculty and staff are working remotely.
